

The - preliminary - 2014-2019 European Commission

Political groups

Gender

President

Jean-Claude Juncker
President of the European Commission
Luxembourg, EPP

High Representative of Foreign Affairs

Federica Mogherini
Vice President, High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy
Italy, PES

Vice Presidents

Frans Timmermans
Better Regulation, Rule of Law, Inter-Institutional relations
The Netherlands, PES

Kristalina Georgieva
Budget and Human Resource
Bulgaria, EPP

Alenka Bratušek
Energy Union
Slovenia, ALDE

Jyrki Katainen
Jobs, Growth, Investment and Competitiveness
Finland, EPP

Valdis Dombrovskis
Euro and Social Dialogue
Latvia, EPP

Andrus Ansip
Digital Single Market
Estonia, ALDE

Commissioners

Věra Jourová
Justice, Consumers and Gender Equality
Czech Republic, ALDE

Günther Oettinger
Digital Economy and Society
Germany, EPP

Pierre Moscovici
Economic & Financial Affairs, Taxation and Customs
France, PES

Marianne Thyssen
Employment, Social Affairs, Skills and Labour Mobility
Belgium, EPP

Corina Crețu
Regional Policy
Romania, PES

Johannes Hahn
European Neighbourhood Policy and Enlargement
Austria, EPP

Dimitris Avramopoulos
Migration and Home Affairs
Greece, EPP

Vytenis Andriukaitis
Health and Food Safety
Lithuania, PES

Jonathan Hill
Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Markets Union
UK, ECR

Elżbieta Bieńkowska
Internal Market, Industry, Entrepreneurship & SMEs
Poland, EPP

Miguel Arias Cañete
Climate Action & Energy
Spain, EPP

Neven Mimica
International Cooperation and Development
Croatia, PES

Margrethe Vestager
Competition
Denmark, ALDE

Maroš Šefčovič
Transport and Space
Slovakia, PES

Cecilia Malmström
Trade
Sweden, ALDE

Carlos Moedas
Research, Science and Innovation
Portugal, EPP

Tibor Navracsics
Education, Culture, Youth and Citizenship
Hungary, EPP

Phil Hogan
Agriculture and Rural Development
Ireland, EPP

Christos Stylianides
Humanitarian Aid and Crisis Management
Cyprus, EPP

Karmenu Vella
Environment, Maritime Affairs and Fisheries
Malta, PES